

SERVICE

Domestic Relations

ATTORNEYS

Katie M. Walsh (Schenenga)

Jennifer A. Yelen

James E. O'Connell, Jr.

Posternak has a sophisticated domestic relations practice, representing clients in all aspects of family law including pre-marital agreements, separation and divorce actions, family support, property division, custody and parenting time disputes, modifications and contempt proceedings. We litigate in all probate and family courts in Massachusetts and are experienced in representing clients in alternative dispute resolution (including mediation and conciliation). Our attorneys have earned a deserved reputation for being both tough-minded and fair advocates providing effective representation of their clients' interests, and in recognizing and responding to each individual's unique circumstances.

Our attorneys work efficiently and effectively to obtain court orders and judgments to protect our clients' interests in all Probate Court proceedings, including alimony, custody and parenting time, child support, and preservation and division of marital assets, and in modifying existing support and custody orders. Whether in negotiations or at trial, we bring the ability to identify, analyze and value the myriad financial assets often at stake, including complex compensation plans, business interests, trusts, stock options, pension and profit sharing plans and other financial investments, as well as tax consequences of dividing assets and setting support obligations. We work closely with the firm's corporate, real estate, trust and estates, and tax attorneys, and, when necessary, we consult with other outside experts, including licensed mental health professionals, closely-held business valuation experts, and certified real estate appraisers.

Domestic relations clients benefit greatly from our attorneys' extensive experience in resolving the most contentious disputes. Because we know that each client's circumstances are unique, we focus on developing the right strategy to create a successful resolution tailored to the specific needs of each client and each case. Our attorneys are experienced in the negotiation and mediation of family law matters, and are frequently able to resolve a family law dispute without the expense of trial. If litigation proves to be the most effective strategy, we have the broad experience necessary to successfully represent clients in all areas of family law litigation. Put your family in good hands with Posternak.